Tribute To Roger I. Rucker

The Lexington papers pay high tribute to Roger I. Rucker, brother of the late Jonas Rucker of this city, who followed his brother so quickly into the great beyond. The Leader said: Friends and business associates were greatly shocked and grieved to learn of the death of Roger I. Rucker, paying teller of the Fayette National Bank, and one of Lexington's best known young business men which occurred due to pneumonia. He was 33 year old and had been connected with the Fayette National Bank for the last 10 years, serving as paying teller for the last seven years. He was a young man of sterling character, and fine business qualifications and no man connected with the bank enjoyed a wider popularity among its patrons or was held in higher esteem by the bank's officials. Besides his wife, Mrs. Verdelia Rucker, he is survived by two children, Irvine H., and Ruth; his mother, Mrs. Sarah Griggs Rucker, three brothers, James C., of Lexington; Hume E., of Louisville and Orlando C., of Waco; four sisters, Mrs. C. E. Williams, of Madison, Ind.; Mrs. C. M. Treadway, of Paint Lick and Miss Chasteen Rucker, of Paint Lick. The burial was in Lexington.

Fire destroyed the dining hall building containing the dining room and kitchen of St. John's Collegiate Institute and Industrial school at Corbin. The loss is said to have been covered by insurance. The school is under the Episcopal diocese of Lexington.

SPANISH INFLUENZA MORE DEADLY THAN WAR

Said That Epidemic Cost More Lives Than American Loss in Battle. Danger Not Over. Great Care Necessary To Prevent Further Outbreak.

The appalling ravages of Spanish Influenza in this country are perhaps best realized by the statement recently made, that more deaths have resulted in little more than a month from this disease than through our whole eighteen months participation in the battles of the European War.

Our greatest danger, now, declare authorities, is the American tendency to forget easily and to believe the peril is over. Competent authorities claim the coming of cold weather is very apt to bring a return of this disease and there should be no let-up throughout the winter months of the following easily observed precautions, remembering that influenza is far easier to prevent than cure.

Influenza is a crowd disease. Avoid crowds as much as possible. Influenza germs spread where ignorant or careless persons sneeze or cough without using a handkerchief. Cover up each cough or sneeze. Do not spit on the floor, sidewalks in street cars or public places. Avoid the use of common drinking cups and roller towels in public places. Breathe some reliable germicidal and antiseptic air to destroy the germs that do find lodgement in your nose and throat. Remember, no safer precaution against Influenza could be employed in this manner than to get from the nearest drug store a complete Hyomei Outfit consisting of a bottle of the Pure Oil of Hyomei and a little vest pocket hard rubber inhaling device, into which a few drops of the oil are poured. You should carry this inhaler about with you during the day and each half hour or so put it in your mouth and draw deep breaths of its pure, healing germ killing air into the air passages of your nose, throat and lungs.

By destroying germs before they actually begin work in your blood, you may make yourself practically immune to infection.

All these suggestions about Spanish Influenza are equally true in the prevention of colds, catarrh of nose and throat, bronchitis and even pneumonia. Don't become careless. Do your part. Keep the germs away. You may save yourself a serious illness and the loss of several weeks work. Is

"OVER THE TOP,"

Sergeant Empey's Interesting Story of the War.

The wound in my face had almost healed and I was a horrible-looking sight—the left cheek twisted into a knot, the eye pulled down, and my mouth pointing in a north by north-west direction. I was very downhearted and could imagine myself during the rest of my life being shunned by all on account of the repulsive scar. Doctor Frost arranged for me to go to the Cambridge Military hospital at Aldershot for a special operation to try and make the scar presentable.

I arrived at the hospital and got an awful shock. The food was poor and the discipline abnormally strict. No patient was allowed to sit on his bed, and smoking was permitted only at certain designated hours. The face specialist did nothing for me except to look at the wound. I made application for a transfer back to Falmington, offering to pay my transportation. This offer was accepted, and after two weeks' absence, once again I arrived in Munsey ward, all hope gone.

The next day after my return Doctor Frost stopped at my bed and said: "Well, Empey, if you want me to try and see what I can do with that scar I'll do it, but you are taking an awful chance."

I answered: "Well, doctor, Steve Brodie took a chance; he falls from New York and so do I."

Two days after the undertaker squad carried me to the operating room or "pictures," as we called them because of the funny films we see under ether, and the operation was performed. It was a wonderful piece of surgery and a marvelous success. From now on that doctor can have my shirt.

More than once some poor soldier has been brought into the ward in a dying condition, resulting from loss of blood and exhaustion caused by his long journey from the trenches. After an examination the doctor announces that the only thing that will save him is a transfusion of blood. Where is the blood to come from? He does not have to wait long for an answer—several Tommies immediately volunteer their blood for their mate. Three or four are accepted; a blood test is made, and next day the transfusion takes place and there is another pale face in the ward.

Whenever bone is needed for some special operation, there are always men willing to give some—a leg if necessary to save some mangled mate from being crippled for life. More than one man will go through life with another man's blood running through his veins, or a piece of his rib or his shinbone in his own anatomy. Sometimes he never even knows the name of his benefactor.

The spirit of sacrifice is wonderful. For all the suffering caused this war is a blessing to England—it has made new men of her sons; has welded all classes into one glorious whole.

And I can't help saying that the doctors, sisters, and nurses in the English hospitals, are angels on earth. I love them all and can never repay the care and kindness shown to me. For the rest of my life the Red Cross will be to me the symbol of Faith, Hope and Charity.

HER ONLY WAY.

The attraction at the local theatres Wednesday will be Norma Talmadge in her latest picture "Her Only Way." "Her Only Way" tells the story of Lucille Westbrook (Norma Talmadge), who is just out of boarding school and is returning to her small home town. When she reaches home her guardian tells her that her small fortune has dwindled and that unless it can be restored the home of her family will be lost, and as a solution reminds her that Paul Belmont, who wishes to marry her, is a rich man.

Torn between what she considers duty to her dead father and her love for Jo Marshall, a young man who has loved her ever since they were children, she is in a state of indecision although the day upon which she has promised Belmont his answer has arrived.

IN MEMORIAM.

In remembrance of our dear departed sister in Christ, Mrs. Mary Burgh.

Today she is not with us and we are made to feel sad in a way but when we think of her as she is free from pain and the many troubles that come this way. But when we turn from this and see her with our blessed Savior and know eternal years of happiness and sunshine are for her, we give Thee, all the praise of our soul. While we know her children and friends will miss her and the old Tate's Creek church, of which she was a member and worker, we can't tell how much we miss her, who will take her place, the Lord will give us soon one. We all say they will be done, as she has. Let's all press forward to the mark of the high calling in Christ Jesus.—A Friend, George Dossier.
